

Class 2 - Summer 2 2020 - Home learning week 1

Topic: Exploring our 5 senses

Reading

The children have made good progress with reading so far this year. Please read with your child daily.

Continue to access levelled books on the Oxford Owl website. During the last half term, we assigned books for each week, but realise that many of you will have got through them all for your book band now! (If you are unsure of their book band, please message on dojo and we will let you know).

If you have any problems logging in or wish to read even more books that week, please find the logon details below. Login details include spaces and are case sensitive.

Reading Task

This week we are going to be working on our prediction skills. Using a book from Oxford Owl (the correct band for your child) have a go at the following activities:

- Before you open the book look at the front cover. What do you think this book is going to be about? Do you think it will be a fiction or a non-fiction text? Why? What clues do you see that are informing your decisions?
- Read the first 2-3 pages. Using your knowledge of what you have read, what do you think will happen next? Why do you think that?
- Read on. Were your predictions correct? If they weren't, did that surprise you?
- When you have finished the book, based on what you have read, what do you think could happen afterwards? What would you call the next book and why? What would happen in the book and why?

Phonics

1 Walt: explore the initial /n/ and /r/ phonemes.

Read these words. What do you notice about them? They each have a silent consonant! Explore each word and talk about its meaning, ensuring that you put each one in a sentence.

Explore these words over a few days before completing activity 2 and 3.

The silent consonant comes from the Old English, but they actually used to it! Imagine that! Have a go at saying each one and include the consonant at the beginning. Can you tell a story using each word?

Have a go at cutting the words out (or writing them down) and sorting them into the initial silent consonants. Which silent consonant is more common? Can you make up any rhymes to remember them?

Have a go at speed writing! Parents, you say the word and children you write it down. How many words can you get right in 1 minute?

knee	gnome
gnat	wrong
write	knife
know	gnaw
wreck	knock
knight	wreath
wrote	knew

2 Walt: explore the initial /n/ and /r/ phonemes.

Read this story to the children. How many /n/ and /r/ words with silent consonants can you hear? Children: write down the words you hear. Can you spell them correctly? When you have listened to it, read it and complete the activity below:

The gnome had a problem with his knee. So, he wrote to his friend who was a knight, and asked for his help. He knew that the gnats would also help him, so they helped him to run across the wreck on the beach, to the knight's house. When the knight opened the door, he did two wrong things! He stood on the gnome's knee, and then dropped a knife onto the floor. The gnome wriggled away from his friend, and decided, that he would never ask the knight for help again!

Now, find and copy at least two words from the story that have the initial /n/ and /r/ phonemes!

gn	kn	wr

3 Walt: explore the initial /n/ and /r/ phonemes.

Low-stakes spelling test.

Dictate the words from activity 1 and ask the children to spell them correctly.

OR

Muddle up each letter in the words and ask the children to rearrange in the correct order.

How many did you get right? Let me know on Dojo!
